

Waste Heat Recovery Potential Locations October, 2015

This list below represents those compressor units on Steckman Ridge, LP storage facility that meet or closely meet the economic criteria set out in the INGAA White Paper on Waste Heat Recovery of at least 15,000 horsepower operating at or more than a 60% load factor rate.

Steckman Ridge, LP storage facility currently does not have any compressor stations that meet the criteria specified above. Steckman Ridge, LP storage facility will review this on a regular basis and update this as facility changes and technology enhancements dictate.